

Teddy "Prime Time" Brewer wanted to be a pro gambler, but his cards always came up cold. He lost his money, his girlfriend, his self-respect.

Rolo "Moonlight" Marino ran the infamous Castle District with his brother Tony, until the tragic night it was all stolen by a rival gang.

Angelica "Tea Time" Cruz lost her father in the war and is now losing her mother to dementia.

Everyone's luck changes forever when these desperate people meet at night school. During a statistics experiment, the unlikely friends stumble upon an astounding secret...

Luck is real and can be tracked. A person's luck continually rises and falls, but for five minutes each day - the same five minutes - one's luck is so strong, he can do anything. He is infallible. Untouchable.

Bartender Enzo "High Noon" Rossi is added to the group along with veteran gambler Will "Rooster" Larson. Nicknames are chosen based on each person's lucky five minutes.

After easy money in casinos and cardrooms, they realize wealth is not enough, and take their newfound power to frightening heights.

"Lucky Five" is a feature crime-drama ensemble with a supernatural twist.
